

CHARITY TEA GATHERING 「茶の湯古今」CHANOYU: Ancient & Modern Times

The Japanese tea ceremony was transformed into the Way of Tea by Sen Rikyu approximately 500 years ago. In the history of Japanese tea ceremony, the periods before and after Rikyu's era are classified as ancient and modern respectively.

In this tea gathering, participants will get to enjoy the traditional beauty of Chanoyu and how it has also kept up with the times. There will be an exhibit to deepen your knowledge of Chado, and an activity corner to experience making tea, appreciate incense and learn basic tea drinking etiquette.

Date: Sunday, 19 Oct 2014
Time: 10:00am to 4:00pm
(Reception 9:30am – 3:00pm)
Venue: Level 2 Ballroom
The Japanese Association
120 Adam Road
Singapore 289899
Fee: $20

The proceeds will be donated to the Straits Times School Pocket Money Fund through the Japanese Association, Singapore.
To register, please email info-event@urasenke-singapore.com

Chado Urasenke Tankokai Singapore Association
177 River Valley Road #02-11, Liang Court, Singapore 179030
www.urasenke-singapore.com