

NOH THEATRE

BEHIND THE MASK

16 October

1.00pm – 2.00pm

Woodlands Regional Library
Programme Zone

Noh, is a form of theatre involving music, dance and drama, originating in 14th Century Japan. Using slow, poetic movements, rich and elaborate costumes, along with a narrative chorus and music accompaniment, get a glimpse into this fascinating art form and the multifaceted elements behind the creation of a story.

Organised by:

Supported by:

This demonstration/workshop will be conducted by Ms. Chikage Terai, a Noh performer from Kanze school, Japan.

Please register at library e-kiosks or Go Library website www.nlb.gov.sg/golibrary. Admission is free for all.