

27/01/2015

Embassy of Japan in Singapore
Executive Committee of the 50th Anniversary of Singapore-Japan Diplomatic Relations

Inauguration of the Executive Committee
For the 50th Anniversary of Singapore-Japan Diplomatic Relations (SJ50)

In the Year 2016, Japan and Singapore will mark the 50th Anniversary of its diplomatic relations. To successfully celebrate this memorable year with the people of Japan and Singapore, today, we have inaugurated the Executive Committee for the 50th Anniversary of Singapore-Japan Diplomatic Relations under the chairmanship of Haruhisa Takeuchi, the Ambassador of Japan to Singapore. The Executive Committee is comprised of various organizations that have been actively promoting Japan-Singapore friendship, including The Japanese Association, Singapore, Japanese Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Singapore(JCCI), The Japanese Cultural Society, Singapore(JCS), The Japanese University Graduates Association of Singapore(JUGAS) and more.

The Executive Committee will carry forward the examination for concrete activities and projects that would promote exchange and friendship in a variety of fields, as well as deepen mutual understanding between Japan and Singapore. Celebrating this memorable year with as many people, the Executive Committee is planning to set up a framework to acknowledge your activities/initiatives as a part of the 50th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations Projects. Your active participation is truly appreciated. The Executive Committee is also planning to invite ideas from the public for a logo of the 50th anniversary of projects. The details for application will be announced on the Embassy of Japan website in due course.