

Presented by Chado Urasenke Tankokai Singapore Association

Workshop : How to be a perfect guest

Season 2: Appreciating Thick Tea ~Ichiza Konryu / Nagori ~

Join us on 6 October for our workshop focuses on the manners of a guest in Chaji. Chaji is a relatively more formal event compared to our popular series of Four Season Tea Gathering, Chakai.

You will be able to experience more procedures in chado; Nakadachi (a break in a chaji), Sekiiri (re-enter the room), Koicha (thick tea), etc. October is the season of Nagori, that means parting with things of Furo (brazier) season before Ro (sunken hearth) season begin in November.

By sharing a bowl of tea, you will understand the concept of Ichiza Konryu, which is an important aspect of tea gathering.

Date: 6 October 2019 (Sun)

Time: ① 10:00 - 11:20 ② 11:30 - 12:50 ③ 13:00 - 14:20

④ 14:30 - 15:50

Venue: Urasenke Tea Room (Liang Court #02-11, 177 River Valley Road)

Fee: $30 to be paid on the day at the venue

Reservation required. Please contact info-event@urasenke-singapore.com indicating your preferred session and the number of attendees.