

チャリティ茶会『海を渡った茶道』 Charity Tea Gathering “Chado Across the Seas”

This year’s theme, “Chado Across the Seas”, focuses on how the unique culture of Japanese chado has evolved due to overseas influences. With a seasonal approach, this history will be introduced through our tea ceremony demonstrations.

November is the time to open tea jars containing new tea leaves harvested in May. Enjoy aroma and flavour in two different tearoom settings for thick tea, and thin tea.

The exhibition will feature the history of Thow Kwang Pottery, the oldest dragon kiln in Singapore, and wood-fired works by Thow Kwang Pottery Jungle artists.

Date	3, November (Sun) 2019
Time	10:00am - 4:00pm (Reception 9:30am - 3:00pm)
Venue	The Japanese Association, Singapore Level 2 Ballroom (120 Adam Road)
Admission	$20 including tea and sweets in two tea ceremonies (thin and thick tea) Donation is requested to attend an extra tea ceremony The proceeds will be donated to the Straits Times School Pocket Money Fund through the Japanese Association, Singapore.
Reservation	info-event@urasenke-singapore.com
Enquiry	info@urasenke-singapore.com
Benefactors	The Japanese Association, Singapore Japan Creative Centre, Embassy of Japan in Singapore
Organizer	Chado Urasenke Tankokai Singapore Association