

Presented by Chado Urasenke Tankokai Singapore Association

Workshop : How to be a perfect guest

~Season 1: Rainy Season~

This workshop focuses on the manners of a guest in Chaji.

Chaji is a relatively more formal event compared to our popular series of Four Season Tea Gathering, Chakai. You will be able to experience more procedures in chado; "machiai (waiting room)", "kumidashi (a cup of hot water)", "roji (garden)", "seki-iri (how to enter the room)" and "usu-cha (a bowl of thin tea)".

Let's join, learn one step further, and feel the season through the tearoom and utensils used on the day as seasonality is important to the enjoyment of chado as well.
