However, because of the limited number of rooms, these dormitories may not be able to accommodate all the students who wish to live there.

- b. Residence halls for foreign students established by national university corporations.

National university corporations have residence halls for foreign students. The grantees enrolled at national universities where such facilities are available may reside, if they so desire, in these residence halls under certain set conditions. However, because of the limited number of rooms, some of these facilities may not be able to accommodate all the students who wish to live there.

- c. Private accommodations.

Those who are not able to find accommodation in the aforementioned facilities may live in a regular dormitory of the university or in a private boarding house/apartment introduced by the university.

It is very difficult for grantees with accompanied by family members to find appropriate housing in Japan. The grantee is requested to come to Japan alone first to secure housing before having his/her spouse and/or family members come over to Japan.
