

Conclusion of Donation Collection for the 2024 Noto Peninsular Earthquake at the Embassy of Japan in Singapore

The Embassy of Japan in Singapore would like to express its sincere gratitude to everyone who has generously supported the relief efforts following the 2024 Noto Peninsula Earthquake.

Since January 2024, the Embassy has been accepting donations through a dedicated bank account as well as cash contributions at our consular office. We would like to inform the public that the Embassy will conclude the acceptance of donations with immediate effect.

Please note that Ishikawa Prefecture and the Japanese Red Cross Society will continue to accept donations.

Details of their bank accounts and remittance information are provided below.

Thank you once again for your warm support
