

Graduated from Waseda University in 1997 with a Master Degree in Engineering.

Started working in Singapore since 1998. Previously worked for multiple Japanese companies.

From 1999 to 2011, worked as Sales Engineer and was promoted to Sales Manager in Carbide and Diamond tooling.

At the age of 40, changed field from Engineering to food production, from 2012 until 2017, dealing with Halal and non-Halal food products. After that, from 2018 to 2020, worked with IOT, Quantum computers and providing immune therapy against cancer.

Started work as a salesman and was promoted to management level. Currently working in a Japanese warehouse and logistics company mainly in charge of Singapore 5G network service related products.