About Kin Shiotani

www.kinshio.com

Illustrator and poet, Kin continues to impress us with his unforgettable style, language and attitude of mind towards living.

His activity ranges from designing postcards with poetic "long titles" to providing illustrations for the covers of school textbooks and book wraps for a bookstore.

He holds his unique style performance, called "drawing theatre", an improvisational painting stage where he draws pictures and composes poetic narratives to it in the presence of the audience.
